

A LOVELY MAGAZINE

Evelyn O. Shih

One of my most enjoyable activities is to sit in my recliner reading a current magazine. I've found that a magazine has many lovely features which books and newspapers don't have.

Newspapers come too often, like a talkative neighbor. Every time you open the back door, she is right there. Magazine only comes once a month, the proper duration of you to miss her. Then you spend a couple of hours with her and renew your friendship together.

Books are authoratative. It is a one-man show. If you don't like the book, too bad, there is no alternative. However, a magazine is a compilation of various articles from different writers. If you don't agree with this writer, O.K., there are so many others you can enjoy. To read a magazine is like joining a discussion group which is much more interesting than attending a long lecture.

A magazine has another meaning in English. It means a room or place for keeping gunpowder and other explosives. I like to think that our Christian magazines are just like that. This article wakes you up from a routine and dull spiritual life and another explodes against sin and temptation. We really need these military supplies to continuously live a victorious life.

Any magazine reader can be her article contributor in three months. (The deadline is three months in advance.) Even if your article is not accepted, you can still write something in the readers column. Isn't that lovely?

A magazine is also a lovely gift for anybody on any occasion. And this gift repeats itself twelve times to remind your friend that you care.

Steering Magazine has been published for seven years. This is the beginning of her eighth year. We thank the Lord for giving us the opportunity to make a lovely magazine. We hope that you will love her more and keep her lovely all the time.
