

had a fun time investigating together the options I had. We actually had a good time arguing. So, it turned out I didn't take the job because I couldn't sit still in an office very long, that's not me.

They say opposites attract, that is true. Opposites argue, that is also true. But don't forget, opposites can be rather comforting. Although it's tough sometimes, I've decided to keep my opposite because it is probable why I love him!

SMILE

Doreen Szeto

Have you ever realized the significance of a smile? One dictionary defines a smile as "a change of facial expression in which the eyes brighten and the lips curve slightly upward especially in expression of amusement, pleasure" The meaning of a smile is very important. It expresses happiness and joyfulness. We smile for many different reasons. Something happy happens, we are excited, we receive a gift. And what better reason to smile than because we have the joy of eternal life? Isn't that the perfect reason to smile?

A smile really turns people on, especially if they realize how often you smile and wonder what keeps you so happy. A smile can be the first step to share Christ's love with someone else. People used to point out to me that I needed to smile more. And it's true. No one enjoys hanging around a grump. It's much more enjoyable talking to someone with a smile and who is willing to have fun.

Even if things don't go your way, it's okay. In I Corinthians 10:13, we are reminded that "God is faithful; he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear." Things will go wrong, you will have doubts, and you may even question God. But remember that He is always with you, no matter what happens. He has a plan for your life, and He knows what is best for you. Joshua 1:9 tells us "the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go." If you don't think these are reasons to smile, there is something else that is important. John 3:16 says, "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life." What better reason is there to smile than that?

"Indeed, you are our glory and joy."
