

Change

Leona Choy

Something within me
is apprehensive of change.
Nevertheless I know that I GROW through the unpredictable and my struggle through disenchantments leads to new reality and joy.
God sluffs off the old and familiar to let me discover beneath the crust the fresh, the new.
In the shattering of a dream
I awaken to new visions.

I am wrong to resist change.
It is my FRIEND sent as God's instrument to teach me to bend with the wind and lean in another direction.

A stream encountering stones in its onward flow
instinctively will know it must find a new channel and joyously go on its way in rippling expectancy.

The I shall WELCOME CHANGE
as a clean slate
a fresh breath
a cool breeze
an untried path
a stimulation to renewal an opportunity to bloom transplanted!
