

The Ottawa River

By Katherine Sun Lu

*Day and night, without rest,
You surge from the ancient forest,
Through the rapids of torrents,
Rushing all the way to the St. Lawrence.*

*You tell the wonder of creation,
You relate the history of this nation;
You resound the changes of the seasons,
You reflect the beauty of this valley, so northern.*

*You mark the ages,
You record the vicissitudes of time,
Now, may I ask,
Do you ever have the longing
Of returning to your very beginning?*
